About the Trainers:

Ms. Santos is the Training Division Director at Community Solutions, and a private consultant in leadership and organizational development. She has over 15 years of experience in the mental health field, with a focus in families impacted by substance abuse and the criminal justice system, including the creation of a pilot program at Child Advocates within the Santa Clara County Dependency Drug Treatment Court, in collaboration with Judge Len Edwards. She has been an advisor to Prevention Partnership International for 8 years, and is a national trainer in the Celebrating Families! model.

Mrs. Tisch is the author of numerous substance abuse prevention curriculums for children and families. She has conducted training programs throughout the world, and is an advisor and consultant to the National Drug Endangered Children Alliance and the National Association for Children of Alcoholics. She was the lead author for Celebrating Families![™] and supervised its adaptation, iCelebrando Familias!, for mono-lingual Spanish speaking families and the new 0-3 component. Group models created by her teams have been successfully replicated throughout the US, Mexico, and Russia. Honors include: the 2012 Vernon Johnson Award from Faces & Voices; the 2010 California State Director's Award for Cultural Diversity; and 2008 selection as one of NACoA's 25 individuals who "save, protect and guide children of alcoholics".
