Building Bright Futures for Children with Special Needs

Partner Special Needs Training

Facilitated by Parents Helping Parents & Financed by FIRST 5 Santa Clara County

Partner Special Needs Training Series – Intermediate Designed for FIRST 5 Partners and other Local Professionals

Both sessions will be presented by Trudy Grable of Parents Helping Parents.

Session #1: Working with Families with Children with Special Needs Pt II Friday, November 7th, 2014 from 9:30 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Working with Families When a Child Has a Disability

This presentation covers how to successfully collaborate with families that have a child with a known or suspected disability; understand parental grief; make use of community resources and PHP services; consider and ensure inclusion; and work with parents who may have their own disabilities. The focus is fostering resiliency in these families and their young children.

Session #2: Creating the Future of Person Centered Planning Tuesday, January 6th, 2015 from 9:30 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Person Centered Planning

This session will share tools and approaches that are used in person centered practices. Person centered planning is a process for continual listening and learning, focusing on what is important to someone now and in the future, and acting upon this in alliance with their family and friends. Using a multimedia approach, we will define the concepts of person centered and explore the development of 1 Page Profiles, a life-transforming document.
